

TABERNACLE SERVICES VERY INTERESTING

Services Thursday Largely Attended, Despite Weather.

A SERMON TO MEN ONLY

Dr. Stewart Spoke to a Large Audience on the Subject, "The Stuff Men Are Made Of"—Lecture by Rev. David V. Gwilym in Afternoon.

Thursday's session of the Bible Conference was opened in the morning at 10 o'clock by a short song service, followed by an invocation by Dr. Sallien. Miss Munford sang a beautiful solo, "A Hundred Years From Now."

The sermon was delivered by Dr. George R. Stewart, the text being taken from Luke 6:27, "Love Your Enemies." This sermon was one of the many practical soul-inspiring discourses delivered by this earnest, whole-souled speaker, and those who heard it, heard something that was a great help in trying to understand the proper interpretation of these words. At the close of the service Miss Munford sang very beautifully, "Love, Mighty and Wonderful."

Despite the threatening weather, quite a number assembled at the Tabernacle for the afternoon service to hear the learned divine, Dr. David V. Gwilym of New York, who spoke on "Prophecies." Dr. Gwilym is one of the finest and most eloquent speakers of the Conference, and never fails to draw large congregations. Owing to the ceremonies of dedicating the fountain, which were announced by the W. C. T. U., Dr. Gwilym lectured briefly, but will continue his subject this evening.

In the evening Dr. George Stewart delivered an interesting lecture to men only, his subject being, "The Stuff Men Are Made Of." There was a large audience, and Dr. Stewart got right down to the core and spoke a lot of truth, all of which was listened to with deep interest. Dr. Stewart is a fine speaker. He is on the order of the Rev. Sam P. Jones, with whom he was associated for many years, and his sermons are richly flavored with anecdotes and appropriate references which make them specially palatable and interesting.

He spoke for considerably more than an hour, but the audience never became wearied, and many expressed themselves as being refreshed from his remarks.

The program for today will be as follows: 10 a. m., sermon by Rev. George R. Stewart; 3 p. m., lecture by Dr. W. E. Blackstone; 7:30 p. m., sermon on "Prophecies" by Dr. David Vaughn Gwilym, being a continuation of the discourse Thursday afternoon.

ANOTHER TRANSFER.

W. M. Johnson Has Purchased Lancaster Property.

Real estate is constantly on the move in Gainesville, and has been for the past two years. The last deal of importance to be consummated was the purchase of what is commonly known as the Lancaster property, West Liberty street, by Dr. W. M. Johnson. The property, which was formerly owned by Dr. Lancaster, was purchased a few years ago by Dr. J. H. Colson. Dr. Colson sold the property to Mayor W. R. Thomas a few weeks ago, who in turn has now disposed of the same to Dr. Johnson. It comprises a comfortable residence and another two-room building, facing directly upon the street, which has been used as a physician's office. It is among the most desirable property in that section.

As was noted a day or two ago, Dr. Colson, who now occupies the premises with his family, has purchased the home of A. M. Cushman in East Gainesville, Alachua avenue, and will occupy the same upon the return of his wife and baby from Savannah. Mr. Cushman will erect a new and modern home upon the lot recently purchased, corner of Alachua and Palmetto avenues.

Dr. Colson, it is understood, has secured office room in the Euclid Block, corner Liberty and West Main streets.

Attention, Odd Fellows.

The regular weekly meeting of Center Lodge No. 11, I. O. O. F., will be held at the lodge room over Dutton's bank this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

There will work in the Second Degree. A full attendance is desired, and visiting brothers will receive a cordial welcome.

VINOL'S RELIABILITY.

STRONG EVIDENCE OF MERIT

Prominent Physicians Join With Mr. Johnson in Recommending Vinol.

Countless physicians and druggists are now prescribing and endorsing Vinol as the most valuable cod liver oil preparation known to medicine, and it is fast superseding all other forms of cod liver oil.

A prominent physician writes: "I am satisfied that Vinol derives its wonderful life-giving and strength-creating power from the medicinal curative elements found in the cod's liver. It is the best strength creator and vitalizer for old people, weak women, children, and the convalescent that I ever saw."

Another physician writes: "I could cite many cases where health has been restored in a surprisingly short time by Vinol. I should be very sorry to have to do without Vinol in my practice. It has no equal for hard colds, throat and bronchial troubles."

Now, when we tell you that we have never sold in our store a remedy of such remarkable curative and strength-creating power as Vinol, for the weak, the sick and the aged, and that if it fails to accomplish what we say it will we will refund your money without question, it will show you our faith in the preparation.

In cases where cod liver oil, emulsions and other tonics fail, Vinol will heal, strengthen and cure.

Try Vinol on our guarantee. W. M. Johnson, druggist.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

Mrs. L. E. Ridenhour of Cordele, Ga., has arrived in the city, and will spend some time here as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. H. L. Phifer.

The friends of Col. J. M. Rivers will regret to learn that he is quite sick at his home in East Gainesville. Two children of Mr. and Mrs. Rivers are also suffering from la grippe.

Oscar Morris, formerly of this city, but who went to Memphis, Tenn., a few weeks ago to represent the New York Life Insurance Company, returned yesterday, having come home on account of illness. Friends of Mr. Morris will regret to learn that he is indisposed.

Among the prominent visitors to Gainesville is George S. LeGrande of Wilmington, N. C., assistant auditor of the Atlantic Coast Line, who is here as a guest of his brother, S. W. LeGrande. Mr. LeGrande has visited this city before, and is delighted with this section of Florida.

Grave Trouble Foreseen.

It needs but little foresight to tell that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women." Sold under guarantee by all druggists at 50c a bottle.

A Recent Double Wedding.

Miss Leora Osteen and Joseph Hines of Suwannee county, and Miss Pearl Osteen and Dolphus Hines of Alachua county, were recently married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Osteen, about five miles west of High Springs, Rev. L. R. Thomas officiating.

The contracting parties are very popular, and there were more than 100 presents. The affair was concluded by a big supper, which it is needless to add included everything good to eat that could be secured in the markets.

The Sun, with other friends, extends congratulations, and wishes the young people many years of happiness and success.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth

Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

A cough medicine over sixty years old

This must mean merit, solid, genuine merit. It certainly must be true that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, asthma. Ask your own doctor to explain why it strengthens weak throats and heals inflamed lungs.

TWENTY YEARS' SLEEP.

Rip Van Winkle's Case May Have Been More Fact Than Fiction.

Even superficial students of folklore know that the tale of Rip Van Winkle, supposing that Irving really heard it in the old Dutch settlements along the Hudson, is by no means peculiar to that district, but is found in some form or other all over the world. In other words, the idea that it is possible for a human being to survive in a state of unconsciousness for a very long time would seem to be either a universal fancy or to be founded on some actual experience.

Dr. Lancereaux in the Paris Bulletin of the Academy of Medicine reports such an experience, the case of a woman who actually did, so far as intelligent consciousness was concerned, sleep almost exactly twenty years.

The patient, of a neurotic and hysterical family, had always been delicate and nervous. On May 31, 1883, she was severely frightened and fell into violent hysteria, which after twenty-four hours passed into unconsciousness. In this condition, interrupted every month or six weeks by sudden convulsive attacks, she lay until May 23, 1903, kept alive entirely by injections of nourishment.

On May 23 she was seized with hysteria similar to that at the beginning of her sleep, and the next day there was another convulsion. On May 25 she began definitely to recover consciousness and by the next day was able to speak intelligently of events before her sleep and could also remember from day to day since her waking. Of happenings during her sleep, such as the drawing of some of her teeth, she knew nothing. On the evening of May 28 she died peacefully.

The particular case is of interest chiefly to the medical profession, but the general fact of survival in unconsciousness for a very long time shows how such tales as those of the Sleeping Beauty, the Seven Sleepers of Ephesus and Rip Van Winkle, to mention only the most familiar examples, could have originated from actual experience and observation. Very likely such cases occurred more than once.

"Truth is stranger than fiction," runs the old saying. It is undoubtedly more correct to say that fiction is merely enlarged, reduced, distorted and otherwise decorated fact and that without a fact within general knowledge from which to start fiction could not exist. It is entirely safe to conjecture that at some prehistoric period, sleeping not out of doors, of course, but under shelter, and for many weeks and probably months, if not years, there was a Rip Van Winkle.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Health

Means the ability to do a good day's work, without undue fatigue and to find life worth living. You cannot have indigestion or constipation without it's upsetting the liver and polluting the blood. Such a condition may be best and quickest obtained by Herbine, the best liver regulator that the world has ever known. Mrs. D. W. Smith writes, April 3, 1902: "I use Herbine, and find it the best medicine for constipation and regulating the liver I ever used." Price 50 cents. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

A Tarpon Scarecrow.

Times and places there are where the tarpon have been so numerous and so free in their antics as to be a pest to the small fishermen, who in a certain bay once harpooned a lordly fish, lashed him to a keg and pointed him to the open sea.

Drawing the floating barrel, he went, splashing terror to his kindred, an aquatic scarecrow. And as the militant hoghead, ferried by a leaping twelve stone fish, went marching down the bay all tarpon, great and small, took warning that they must keep their performances within the bounds of decency.—Country Life in America.

Using a Coat Hanger.

Many years of hard work on the farm had made the old man round shouldered, and his coat fitted badly. His son in the city sent him a coat stretcher on which to hang the coat at night. On his next visit to the farm the young man asked how the coat stretcher worked. His father looked a little embarrassed and then confessed. "I can't stand it on," said he. "It was real good of you to send it. Your mother fastened it to my coat with tape, but I wasn't comfortable in it, and I had to take it off."

A Dream.

"I found I had saved up a thousand dollars without pinching myself." "Without pinching yourself?" "Without pinching myself." "Then how did you know you were awake?"—Puck.
